

Company: Western Technical

Position: Mapping Technician

Location: Throughout U.S.

Duration: Long-Term

Wage (no experience): $12-$15 per hour (40-60 hours per week)

Wage (with experience): $15-$17 per hour (40-60 hours per week)

Job Purpose: Inspection and audit of communication towers and equipment. Includes gathering data to report appurtenances, cabling, hardware, and structural steel within engineering specifications and Industry standards.

Job Duties:

- Must be able to climb to heights in excess of 350' on a daily basis in most weather conditions
- Must be able to operate precision tools (dillion tension gauge, digital transit, fluke meter, etc) (willing to train the right person)
- Must be able to load and unload materials, tools, equipment and supplies for work site
- Must be able to identify all materials and other resources needed to complete projects
- Ability to read and understand blue prints (willing to train the right person)
- Must complete SOW and maintenance while ensuring safety and quality work
- Must be able to travel out of town for 6-8 weeks at a time and be able to work long hours
- Follow all state and federal safety regulations while working in an efficient and productive manner
- Must have excellent work ethic, with drive and organizational skills to work unsupervised
- Proficient with computers
- Applicant must have a valid driver's licenses
- Climbing Certification, RF Certification, OSHA 10, First Aid-CPR preferred but willing to train the right person
- Personal trade tools are a plus

Health, Dental, Vision, and Life insurance benefits available.

PO Box 1062 Wittmann, AZ 85361

JuAnne Codding

(623)640-1970

JuAnne.Codding@westerntechnical.org